

GIVE STUDENTS Clobal Flavors

Turkey is your ticket to offering a variety of on-trend international dishes in a way that's still familiar

About half (49%) of school districts plan to offer new menu items this school year that feature international flavors

Asian flavors were the most commonly cited among operators

Asian cuisine is in the mainstream: Sales at limited service Asian/ noodle chains grew 8.9% YOY in 2018, more than any other concept category ²

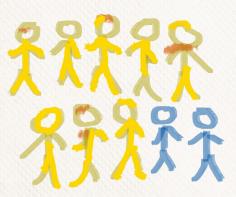

> Mexican dishes — specifically tacos — were also popular in meal plans this year

> > Sales at Mexican chains grew 5.7% YOY in 2018²

Operators can feel confident in exploring global dishes made with turkey knowing that students may already be trying them at home

More than 8 in 10 parents of school-age children believe turkey could be a good substitute for ground beef, chicken or pork in international dishes³

Turkey is a versatile canvas for spices and sauces, so it's perfect as a base for globallyinspired burgers, salads and tacos — as well as more adventurous dishes

Recipes

Butterball, America's preferred turkey brand,³ has the right product offerings to help you create great-tasting global options your students will crave

Asian Turkey Salad

Sesame seeds and chow mein noodles give crunch to this salad topped with Turkey Tenderloin Medallions

Turkey Banh Mi

Turkey Tenderloin Medallions make this a lighter take on the traditional Vietnamese sandwich served on a baguette with marinated vegetables

Jerk Turkey Street Taco

A spicy jerk seasoning turns Turkey Thigh Roast into a flavorful taco filling, and a pineapple and cabbage slaw serves as a cooling, crunchy topping
